"Til You Love Me"

We've gone as far as you want to go
Danced all around the edge
When your ready to give me everything
I'll still be here waiting
You know where I stand

Chorus

It's time to give in and let down your guard
Open your arms and show me your heart
And I'm strong enough to hold onto what I believe
And wont let go till you love me
Till you love me

I gave you the space that I know you need
To get to the place where I am
No I'll never ask for anything
I've been patient coos' I know where this will end

Chorus

Something worth having, worth waiting for
I can feel each time you touch me
You want me a little more

Chorus

Oooo Oooo

Till you love me
