If i could
I would undo everything i've done
I hurt you,
I know its true
with no thought,
I ruined alot
I made you sad, i mad you mad

I dont blame you for hating me now what i did was low
i dont know if this means anything to you but i have to say
its my fault, i messed things up once again you deserve more, you deserve the best you mean so much to me i knew what was right, i went to wrong one night, meaning nothing it could have been easy to leave. no explanations

to late, nothing i can do, I try and explain, but what good would that bring.

I done blame you for hating me now
what i did was low
you deserve more, you deserve the best

i know, i messed up im not trying to change how you feel i deserve what your giving me everything has become all to real so you think its simple but you may never understand
