I feel it comin' on again
I feel the sudden rush
When you touch, kickin' in, oh, oh
I know you heard it all before
But when you leave, I just want more
You're the only thing I'm waitin' for

'Cause in the evening, there'll be
Love, love, love
And in the morning, there'll be
Love, love, love

In the beginning, there was
Love, love, love, yeah
Until the last breath we take, there'll be
Love, love, love, love, love

I wanna lay and watch you sleep
I wanna play your favorite songs
'Til dawn and we won't stop to repeat
I know I said it once before
When you leave, I just want more
So won't you be my, 'Only Yours'?

'Cause in the evening, there'll be
Love, love, love
And in the morning, there'll be
Love, love, love

In the beginning, there was
Love, love, love, yeah
Until the last breath we take, there'll be
Love, love, love, love, love

Oh yeah
La te da, la te da
La te da, la te da da
La te da, la te da
Da da da da, da da da da da

And in the evening, there'll be
Love, love, love

(Will there be love?)
And in the morning, there'll be
Love, love, love
(Yeah, there'll be love)

In the beginning, there was
Love, love, love, yeah
Until the last breath we take, there'll be
Love, love, love, love, love

(Love, love, love)
And in the evening, there'll be
(Love, love, love)
And in the evening, there'll be

(Love, love, love)
And in the morning, there'll be
(Love, love, love)
And in the morning, there'll be

(Love, love, love)
In the beginning, there was
(Love, love, love)
In the beginning, there was
(Love, love, love)

Until the last breath we take, there'll be
Love, love, love, love, love
