Caught in this endless trap, you neglect to see
All of the aspiration built up inside of me
I want to express myself and say what's on my mind
You're that perfect person and that's so hard to find Something's burning inside of me, obsession,
depression
Why won't she fall for me, obsession, depression
All I wanted was to be with you
I can't believe it's true
Obsession,
Obsession, depression
Obsession, depression

Killing my mind
You won't give me a chance you just say leave it be
I want to get in your pants is all you think and see
You've got a new guy now, what am I supposed to do
I guess I'm fucked, 'cause I've been played by you Something's burning inside of me, obsession,
depression
Why won't she fall for me, obsession, depression
All I wanted was to be with you
I can't believe it's true
