You're fishing for compliments.
Because you know I'm all down on you.
People say, get a break.
(Cause I know it never be the same)
I know you care but not for me.
Time after time you fool me so easy.
Can't wait to get you out.
(Cause I know it never be the same)

You know that I love you
But it's time to let you go
Please just let me know
Please just get away
Why do you make it harder than it's to say

(chorus)
It never will be the same
You don't even wanna know my name
Maybe I'm I'm just the one to blaim because
It will never be the same
My dreams always chasing your face but you don't like me
You're always complaining
And I know I better let you go 'cause
I know it never be the same

I know it never be the same

Those roses I send to you.
Were too much to become a part of you.
I made mistakes, right from wrong.
(Cause I know it never be the same)

I need some time
To find a better day
Without you anyway but It's hard to do that because you were sunlight in my face
'Cause you were the night before my days but

(chorus)

It never will be the same
You don't even wanna know my name
Maybe I'm I'm just the one to blaim because
It will never be the same
My dreams always chasing your face but you don't like
me
You're always complaining
And I know I better let you go 'cause
I know it never be the same
