We seem to lose our minds at night
The perfect day ends with a fight
But you always find it and make it right
You're a mystery to me

We rise, we fall, we fly, we crawl
We heal, we break, we're real, we're fake
But it's us, you and me
I love you, I love you

Sometimes I long to be alone
How would you feel if I was gone?
But I always miss you when you fall asleep
You're a mystery to me

We rise, we fall, we fly, we crawl
We heal, we break, we're real, we're fake
But it's us, it's you and me
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you

We always know just what to say
A single word and it's okay
But you make me wanna change my weaker/wicked ways
You're a mystery to me

We rise, we fall, we fly, we crawl
We heal, we break, we're real, we're fake
We rise, we fall, we fly, we crawl
We heal, we break, we're real, we're fake
But it's us, you and me
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you
