I'll wait forever
For you to let me in You're the only reason
I've been existing

But you never feed me
You'd let me die of thirst
Never need me
You'd rather I die first

Make me feel like I'm a criminal
Yeah you do
Like I'm nothing
Like I'm dead to you

Make me feel like I'm invisible
Yeah you do
Like I'm dead to you
Like I'm invisible

Kneeling at your altar
And I kiss your dirty feet
I've been carrying on like your some ancient diety

You leave me empty
I buy up all you sell You're in the land of plenty and I am in this hell

chorus

I cherish the hours
You squander the days
I've abandoned my home now
To wander your maze
I cannot escape this maze
