Well I was doin' everything that I felt like doing
Man I didn't care
I stepped on many toes, dealt so many blows
I'd be dead if life were fair
I swore I'd never be like the man you see Having trouble getting by
I had bigger plans, was gonna start a band
I was gonna live the life

But that was a long time ago
We were young, what did we know
That was a long time ago
It's over now, but I'm still learning how
To let the feelings go

Well I was doing everything that I felt like doin'
There was nothing left
I should've looked around, I could hear my heart pounding
Couldn't catch my breath
Got into trouble with the law,
Man I never saw it coming til it sucked me in
'Cause I was doin' everything that I felt like doing
Said f**k everything

That was a long time ago
We were young what did we know
That was a long time ago
It's over now, but I'm still learning how

Go away, Don't make me waste another day
Just go away, don't make me waste another day

That was a long time ago
We were young, what did we know
That was a long time ago
It's over now, But I'm still learning how
To let the feelings

Go away- don't make me waste another day
