It's time to begin-all over again
Cuz I can't stand the way it's been.
You're better on your own.
Cuz I don't ever win
And all the pain in which I've lived goes on and on again.
It's all I've ever known.

You say you don't want me to go
Cuz you don't want to be alone.

But you'll thank me come tomorrow.
You'll thank me someday.

Our roots are diggin' in.
If we grow here any longer
The ground will trap us in.
It's all we've ever known.

AND I DON'T EVER WIN
And all the pain in which I've lived goes on and on-again.

You'll thank me come tomorrow.
You'll thank me someday.
You'll thank me come tomorrow.
Cuz I don't ever win.
All the pain in which I've lived goes on and on.

You say you don't want me to go.
Cuz you don't want to be alone.
And the pain goes on and on...
You say you don't me to go.
And the pain goes on and on...
Cuz you don't want to be alone.

You'll thank me come tomorrow.
You'll thank me someday.
