The color of your eyes
Run deep through me
I'll stand all alone
And wait for you
Down on your ways
Down on my ways
Girl, we're only letting
Ourselves down tonight
When it comes falling down
It's pouring over me and it's all the pain I felt
She said that she feels like she's had enough
She said that she feels like she's sad
Waiting for this night to end
When you know
And you know it's over
And girl I hate to say this
Maybe it's the wrong time
To bring up the feelings gone
Maybe you were right
But I can't do this now so
Pretty eyes, I'll say goodnight

I've said enough, I'm letting go

It's coming out again

And I just can't pretend, I didn't see this, here we go

Play the record and hold me close

Now I know you're leaving, just tell me that you care

Down the road we'll never know, down the road I wanna know

And girl I hate to say this

Maybe it's the wrong time

To bring up the feelings gone

Maybe you were right

But I can't do this now so

Pretty eyes, I'll say goodnight

I've said enough, I'm letting go

The color of your eyes

Run deep through me

I'll stand all alone

And wait for you

I'll sing you to sleep

As you hold on to me

Don't stop, baby girl

I need you too

And girl I hate to say this

Maybe it's the wrong time

To bring up the feelings gone

Maybe you were right

But I can't do this now so
So, pretty eyes, I'll say goodnight
The color of your eyes
Run deep through me
I'll stand all alone
And wait for you
Down on your ways
Down on my ways
Girl, we're only letting ourselves
Down tonight
