She straps on her wings and she flies
Up through the clouds in her mind
Away from a world that's so cold
With a secret she keeps

She forces a smile when she can
And searches God's merciful hand
Home isn't home anymore
But she can still dream

Cause in another life, in another world
There's a better way, she's a different girl
Days are beautiful, tears cannot be found
Love is everywhere, Heaven smilin' down
On an angel with time on her side,
Oh, in another life

Her every wish torn apart,
On the day that she gave him her heart
Nothing but pain in return
And years of regret

The bruises get deeper with time
But she just keeps living the lie
Too scared to get up and run
From her empty bed

Cause in another life, in another world
There's a better way, she's a different girl
Days are beautiful, tears cannot be found
Love is everywhere, Heaven smilin' down
On an angel with time on her side,
Oh, in another life

Everyday she wakes up to a sun
That refuses to shine
But walks through the darkness for living
That hope never dies

Cause in another life, in another world
There's a better way, she's a different girl

Days are beautiful, fears cannot be found
Love is everywhere, Heaven smilin' down
On an angel with time on her side,
Oh an angel with time on her side
In another life

She straps on her wings and she flies
Up through the clouds in her mind
