One day I was walking down the streets of my home town
When this fellow walks up and says I think you should be a farmer
No way, Jose, ain't you heard of the digit faze?
You best get out my face before I make you extremely late
For your appointment, appointing you absent
This will make sure that you hope to die again
This will make sure, don't suggest to the K this
He should grow green instead of crushing all our eMC's.

All you need now is some direction,
All you need now is some direction
The whole damn category spread up intersections
All you need now is some direction.

No, I can only jog a mile in about 4, 14
After about 10, then I pick up a good wind
Started out a Smokey, now I'm your average test
Just passing by people, hey, thanks for the call
Until this one fellow step up and says dude, let's race
I'm like 'sure, buddy, tell me what start takes
He said 5k, I said 30
North Shore to Rainbow Beach, see who has wills
Ready, set, go
And of course that this one bid about 10 bucks
Watch how our money go, look at the money go
Get that money, go
I can look at my money go cause

All you need now is some direction
All you need now is some direction
Your whole damn category spread up, intersections
All you need now is some direction
Direction, direction, direction

You go right, you go right
You go left, you go right
You go right, you go right

Go right, go left
Go right, go right
You go right, you go left
You go up, you go down
You go left, you go up
And then down, and then left, a left
A left, a right,
You go left, you go up
You go down, you go left
You go up, you go up, you go up
You go up, you go up, you go down
You go down, you go right
You go right, make a right
Make a right, make a right
You go up, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go down, you go down
You go up, you go right
You go right, you go right
You go up, you go up
You go down, you go down
You go up, you go up
You go down, you go down
You go right, you go right
You go down, you go down
You go up, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go down, you go down

You go right, you go right
You go right, you go down
You go down, you go up
You go down, you go down
You go down, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go right, you go up
You go up, you go up
You go right.
