Oh, oh, oh

Three zero zero zero million
Two dollars fifty a day
One person on the other side
Two zero million a day
One forty five million
One twelve triple a week
Ten percent and eighty-five
Fifty and one you see

Oh can you see them
These numbers
They're everywhere yeah they surround us
Open your eyes now
(And) you'll see them
And you just know it's wrong
You know it's wrong
(Cause)

Every single day
Hey hey hey
Every single day
Hey hey hey
We see them in the paper
See them in the news
Tell me where's this goin'?
What're we supposed to do?
[x2]

Ten thousand in Berlin alone

One-forty mph
Eight four zero zero million
Ten triple O ok
One zero zero zero million
Two gallons every glush
Twenty-two zero zero everyday
I just can't believe, that much

Oh can you see them
These numbers

They're everywhere yeah they surround us
Open your eyes now
(And) you'll see them
And you just know it's wrong
You know it's wrong
(Cause)

Every single day
Hey hey hey
Every single day
Hey hey hey
We see them in the paper
See them in the news
Tell me where's this goin'?
What're we supposed to do?
[x2]

Ohh, Hoo, Ohh, Hoo, Ohh, Hoo, Ohh, Hoo
