I kicked out of the house
Threw his clothes in the yard
I was makin' the payments so i'm keepin' the car
He had that deer in the headlights look
As I slammed the door
I work an eight hour day
Come home and cook his dinner
He lays around on the couch
Just watchin' sports center
I've had all I can take of this
Ain't gonna take anymore
So i'm makin' the call
He didn't get me at all
Never listened to a word I said

(Chorus)

I need a man who understands who i'am
And don't wanna try to change me
A man who's strong admits he's wrong
Dont need a mom
One who'll work and isn't lazy
Two lovin' arms that know how to hold me
But don't wanna tie my hands
I need a man I need a man
A man who knows how to treat a woman

He didn't like to dance
So we never went out
He couldn't stand my friends
So they stopped comin' 'round
I can't believe I let that dog lay on the porch so long
I know I can be moody
I can be a little witch
But no woman deserves to be treated like this
It's said it's over it's done and I'm movin' on
I've learned my lesson
No more second guessin'
I'm a woman who knows what she needs
