If I can't have tomorrow, what good is today?
If drownin' in my sorrow's the price i'll have to pay
My love ain't yours to borrow if you don't mean to say
If I can't have tomorrow, what good is today?
If your lips only promise what your heart will not allow
And all that lies beyond this are echoes of false vows

So i'm leavin today
No use pleadin', ain't nothing you can say
Ain't no good reason to stay
Why should I stick around
Just to watch my poor heart break?

(Repeat Bridge)

If I can't have tomorrow, what good is today?
If drowin' in my sorrow's the price i'll have to pay
My love ain't yours to borrow if you don't mean to say
If I can't have tomorrow, what good is today?
