[Tulisa]

Bright lights in the good life
Bright lights on a cold night
If it feels good then it's alright

[The Karma Killers]

Time's running out just as fast as it can
She's leaving me cold
I don't understand
Hearts beating hard on the edge of the floor
Gotta kill this pain 'cause I can't take no more
Thinking about when we first met
All these memories kill me
Get them out of my head
The flashing lights of the cities roar
Make my mind a blurr
Who's knocking on the door
Nothing's for keeps
Can't get no sleep
My future is late
Guess I'll find it next week

[Tulisa]

Bright lights in the good life
Bright lights on a cold night
If it feels good then it's alright
She's caught up in the spotlight
See her up there in a New York fashion show
See the freedom in her eyes
Could've chose a better time
For it all to go wrong

[The Karma Killers]

Another night and my life is my own
But it scares me half to death
Out in the bars in the village with friends
You can buy me a drink
But please don't mention her name
How was I to know?
How was I to feel?
You're leaving all the lights on.

You want me to reveal,
Everything that I hide
From the bright light's glow.
Letting everything go,
To live beyond the shadow of a doubt
I'm riding to your house
There's nothing you can do.

[Tulisa]
Bright lights in the good life
Bright lights on a cold night
If it feels good then it's alright
She's caught up in the spotlight
See her up there in a New York fashion show
See the freedom in her eyes
Could've chose a better time
For it all to go wrong

[The Karma Killers]
I'll never be without a fading afternoon
Maybe all we need is something new
Maybe all we need is nothing we can lose
Long gone days,
Are never so quick to fade.
It took falling away,
To fall on the same page.
She got out of town on the railway, new york bound
Took all except my name
Another alien on broadway
Well, some things in this world you just can't change
Some things you can't see until it gets too late
I got a hole in me now
I got a scar I can talk about
She keeps a picture of me in her apartment in the city

[Tulisa]
Bright lights in the good life
Bright lights on a cold night
If it feels good then it's alright
She's caught up in the spotlight
See her up there in a New York fashion show
See the freedom in her eyes
Could've chose a better time
For it all to go wrong

[The Karma Killers]
But some things in this world
Man, they don't make sense
Some things you don't leave until they leave you
And then the things that you miss, you say
Baby, baby, baby when all your love is gone

Who will save me from all I'm up against out in this world
And maybe, maybe, maybe
You'll find something that's enough to keep you
But if the bright lights don't receive you
You should turn yourself around and come on home

[Tulisa]
Bright lights in the good life
Bright lights on a cold night
If it feels good then it's alright
She's caught up in the spotlight
See her up there in a New York fashion show
See the freedom in her eyes
Could've chose a better time
For it all to go wrong

[Tulisa]
Bright lights in the good life
Bright lights on a cold night
If it feels good then it's alright
She's caught up in the spotlight
See her up there in a New York fashion show
See the freedom in her eyes
Could've chose a better time
For it all to go wrong
