[Emeli Sande]

Tonight we'll make love for the first time
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
(Yow babe, I know it's our first time)
(But, we ain't got to rush)

[The Karma Killers]

Girl you know that I want you babe
I ain't tryin' to hide it babe
When I look into your eyes
You can see how much I'm feeling you
Darling if you only knew
The things that's rolling in my mind
We've been kicking in now for a while
Usually that's not my style
And I ain't tryin' to wait no more
I'm a make sure that the mood is right
Tell me babe whatch you like?
I'm a give you what you've been waiting for Girl this love hurts
And you were my first
And deep down inside I hope you're my last one
I just hope that we're ok when all of this cash comes Cause we know it's coming
My money's runnin (runnin)
My money's runnin (runnin)
Girl our future is as sunny
Girl I really like it, you ain't askin nothing from me
And it's funny
Won't you just come here and be my honey (be my honey baby)
Baby you drivin me crazy

[Emeli Sande]

Are you ready girl?
I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time
Are you ready girl?

I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time

[The Karma Killers]

It doesn't make a difference to me girl so just listen
Cause this is something that you get in your dreams girl
You're so pretty
I'm hanging with you but I'm so... busy
And you're so trippy
That were moving so fast and such a slow city
But you said baby lay me down
I don't even know when this is crazy wild
This love was hot and now you about to take me down
You got some secrets oh baby girl you should say them
now
Cause the sun is setting on the beach
And it's probly gon get chilly
We'll get thing about some sheets
Baby girl you are so pretty, I don't think we'll ever leave
I don't know what's gonna happen
Guess we'll have to wait and see
Cause I got them butterflies

[Emeli Sande]

Are you ready girl?
I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time
Are you ready girl?
I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time

[The Karma Killers]

What is pure?
People walk around so insecure
Fraid that you said the word it, it hurts
As soon as you had your first it's like you baring a curse
But girl I'll protect you
I'm always next to you girl
I respect you
I'll never let you loose No

Girl I'll never let you
If you run away best believe I'm a come get you
Girl I bring you love ever since I met you
I remember you were sneezing
You said achu I said bless you
I'll just get you up girl
And I know you get me
Ever since you met me

[Emeli Sande]
Are you ready girl?
I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time
Are you ready girl?
I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time

[The Karma Killers]
All those texts you sent me
Wasn't lookin for love, just lookin for someone friendly
And I got it, I was younger
I was asking for a Bentley and I got it
Now we're vibin super sexy

[Emeli Sande]
Are you ready girl?
I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time
Are you ready girl?
I wanna go there with you
And there's nothing that I'd rather to do
Then be here tonight
The feeling is right
Tonight we'll make love for the first time
