[Verse 1]

She's hardly interested in sentiment
Save that sorrow speech
Pull out those silly jokes; prods and pokes
Keeps her fluttering
And did you sell it right? Lips to thighs
Shaking mattress
Don't bother trading names, it's getting late
Hit the back door!

She's a party, but the party don't stop here
Not afraid to be the focus of the guys
She's a looker, but you probably shouldn't touch

[Chorus]

I wanna get in the funhouse
You can be the last man standing
Save your promises
She wants you for the night
I just wanna get in the funhouse
I mean she's heavenly
This is what you call a paradise
Now I am having fun
I just wanna get in the funhouse

[Verse 2]

Weight has fallen on me
Like a part of the sky
And life's hell getting up
Off the floor
Raise the blind
And let the day shine in
Out with this grey into air
Darkness tones
In our chinatown home
View of rain clouds
From the window

She's a party, but the party don't stop here
Not afraid to be the focus of the guys
She's a looker, but you probably shouldn't touch

[Chorus]

I wanna get in the funhouse
You can be the last man standing
Save your promises
She wants you for the night
I just wanna get in the funhouse
I mean she's heavenly
This is what you call a paradise
Now I am having fun
I just wanna get in the funhouse

[Hook: Nate Reuss]

Both day and night
For hearts that are broken
Welcome to the light
Your clothes are never needed
So leave behind your fright
Picked up a guy hitching on the highway side
Rode into town together looking for a sign
Thought they saw something in the keno lights
She'd always do what she should
Nice girl of the neighbourhood
Had everything that money could buy
Went out for a ride, looking for the
Went out to find any movie he could rent
Died his hair black, bought him an olive oil suit
To run with the wolves, like Romulus in Reno would

[Chorus]

I wanna get in the funhouse
You can be the last man standing
Save your promises
She wants you for the night
I just wanna get in the funhouse
I mean she's heavenly
This is what you call a paradise
Now I am having fun
I just wanna get in the funhouse

I wanna get in the funhouse
You can be the last man standing
Save your promises
She wants you for the night
I just wanna get in the funhouse
I mean she's heavenly
This is what you call a paradise
Now I am having fun
I just wanna get in the funhouse
