[Sean]

I lived out more than a little,
give my insides out til there's nothing left to see stepped down, left in the middle of the mess you made the mess I used to be so give me love
give me every little bit of your broken heart

[Adam E]

my heart skips a beat so give me love, give me love love love my insides out, there's nothing left to see from my head all the way to my feet strange is what I've become would you ask for a little more of me
why can't I find it?

[Evan]

empty, where my heart used to be now I'm looking in the mirror, I see this monster that is me
...more than a little
just to watch you bleed leave broken words behind give me love, give me love love love insides out, til there's nothing left to see

[Chorus]

So give me love, love, love, love, love, love
Give me love, love, love, love, love, love
Give me love
Give me
Love.....
Give me love.....
Give me love.....
now I needed to find, now I need to find out on my own

[Peter]

Love was meant to be what you have been to me
Not just a runnin' free
What am I gonna do to make my dreams come true You're all I need, I feel

I'm tired enough, oh I'm tired
And I feel so weighed down
I don't want failure while my whole life waits around

[Adam M]

I need a love just like the rest
And I've waited now so long
I don't take what I can
So I don't find love within
Oh, give me a chance to show some affection
Let something show
I'm the one that said it

[Sryan]

I'm with you now and that's all right
But I need more than your touch Show me where your heart lies
Now I feel like letting go
I could fall so easy for you
And I wouldn't even try
Your love lies lost in me
Keep on kissing mine good-bye
Oh, say the words say you get lonely
Just let me know
You will never regret it
And you'll never be lonely again

[Chorus]

So give me love, love, love, love, love, love
Give me love, love, love, love, love, love
Give me love
Give me
Love.....
Give me love.....
Give me love.....
now I needed to find, now I need to find out on my own

[Jay-Z]

I love the way you look when I'm down on my knees
You call me sugar mama and you always say please Whatever you want the kinkier the better
But it's only kinky once baby go get the leather
The handcuffs, blindfold, spank me I'm a bad girl
Good boy just like that gonna use the enjoy 1 soul for 2 bodies lover we'll never die
Infatuation sweet temptation makes us so huge
My soulmate tantra king sticky sweet Love every inch of your body gonna start with your feet
You're my god, I worship you every night
Gimme your nectar big daddy just right Erotic fetish deep desire gotta let go

I'm your prisoner of love and baby you're in control

[Chorus]

So give me love, love, love, love, love, love

Give me love, love, love, love, love, love

Give me love

Give me

Love.....

Give me love.....

Give me love.....

now I needed to find, now I need to find out on my own
