[Sryan]

Try to listen to reason
You and I both know this is too easy
Why? Why do you fool me?
Come a little closer your hands are freezing
Decide, decide; your mine, your mine

[Evan]

Facts don't change a thing
They come and go and lose their meaning
I'll try to give some weight
To these few simple clumsy words I say
There is a point in the conversation
When you've said what you wanted to say and Wanna lay it all on the table
You've got nothing to lose
Well I've basically been patient
Can I make an observation
You've been flirting but leaving me waiting
Now it's time to choose
All these horizontal maybes
That you've been throwing at me lately
Been frustrating me completely

[Adam M]

Don't know what to do
So it's time I asked the questions
Time I made some suggestions
Cause I'm not setting for less then all of you

Cause I want you all or not at all
You gotta let go and lose control

Tonight from the lookin your eyes
I'm thinking maybe it's time
You're mine mine mine

[Sean]

Yeah you're beautiful baby
Don't want you to hate me
I just want you to love me

You gotta be mine
I think you're beautiful baby
I don't need you to save me
Don't you wanna misbehave me
Baby be mine
All the years
All the nerve
It's the least
I deserve
A paper prison
With thin white walls
Brown upholstery amour all
Family business
Nice and neat
Like a cover on a toilet seat
You piss me off
And I piss you on
A waste ends before it's won

[Adam E]
Don't know what to do
So it's time I asked the questions
Time I made some suggestions
Cause I'm not setting for less then all of you

Cause I want you all or not at all
You gotta let go and lose control

Tonight from the lookin your eyes
I'm thinking maybe it's time
You're mine mine mine

[Peter]
I wait in the darkness.
Frozen winds surround my face.
In the cover of darkness I can make believe it's you.
I feel you like the rain, I feel you like a storm cloud building in my heart.
I wonder if you know the pain, to want the one thing you haven't got.
A hand brushes by my love. A smile fuels a steel inferno
You don't have to die to leave my world.
Stand still and you've departed.
It seems I'm not on your mind and I'm just wasting my time.
Won't you leave me in the darkness.
Take away the pride, all the dignity that's burning inside.
Can't you see I'm standing naked.
I'll bear all the crosses and the crucifixes you can provide.

Don't know what to do

So it's time I asked the questions

Time I made some suggestions

Cause I'm not setting for less then all of you

Cause I want you all or not at all

You gotta let go and lose control

Tonight from the lookin your eyes

I'm thinking maybe it's time

You're mine mine mine
