[Sirah]

Each night you show up about a quarter to two
And in my dreams you always come true
And for awhile it's just like old times
But before I know it you say goodbye

[Sean]

I've learned to face and live with the fact
That in real life you're not coming back
Guess I'll never know why you said goodbye
My only consolation is I know that I

[Adam M]

I'll be waitin' at the front door in the back of my mind
When that old sun goes down, I'll lie in wait
For you to hold me in your arms
And love me like yesterday

[Chorus: Sryan]

I don't mean to face the same place you were going for
I see so much now
How my head spins round
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for
Tell me just what to do
'Cos I'm lost inside it all
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for

[Adam E]

I said "sorry" for fuck sake
Try to forget how
All these things came round
Now she is calling out for light
Hoping the wings
Of freedom will arrive
She comes over

[Evan]

Touches down here
Right before my eyes

Kills forever knowing full well we Will all get by
She comes over rips me open
Just to see my
Special little place

[Peter]
Sorry I gave back
Salt tasted
Lightly wasted
Here I give back
All of the words
And memories brought by
Time came by
Promises spoken by me

[Chorus: Sryan]
I don't mean to face the same place you were going for
I see so much now
How my head spins round
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for
Tell me just what to do
'Cos I'm lost inside it all
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for

[Sirah]
Sitting alone, just wondering what it'll take to get with you
Girl, I don't mind, just tell me what to do
I swear if you don't like it, I don't mean to be too forward
But I need you with me
See, I'll run away, girl if you tell me that I'm just not your type
Then I'm gone, bye bye baby
'Cause I wanna be with you the whole night through
All you gotta do is trust in me, baby please

[Chorus: Sryan]
I don't mean to face the same place you were going for
I see so much now
How my head spins round
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for
Tell me just what to do
'Cos I'm lost inside it all
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for

[Chorus: Everyone]
I don't mean to face the same place you were going for
I see so much now
How my head spins round
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for
Tell me just what to do
'Cos I'm lost inside it all
I don't mean to face, face, face the same place you
were going for
