[Taped Rai]

This is to the woman who I loved but lost Intertwine souls of the universe Got divorced when it wasn't forced Cause single thoughts of being double-crossed
Can we go to the thrift shop?

[The Karma Killers]

This to the woman who I used to respect
Now I call her a bitch cause I'm constantly upset
So this is to the bitch who cut communication Caught in a relation Selfishness? Best in the nation
All I ever needed was a hug
To wrap my loving arms around you, you blew it off at a shrug
So all I ever wanted was a hand to hold
I ain't the man to scold
Your plan is cold but god damn its old It's about time get inside of my head while I'm out my mind
As I scream cry yell shout and whine
All I ever asked for
Was an ear to hear me
What you really have to wear a mask for?
You straight shattered my glass jaw
Now I'm picking up the pieces of my past that you last saw
But see this, needless to say, you went astray
And all people ever earful say is I don't give a damn, for real, I don't care Let's pull the hair from myself and try to make things clear
Yeah, I don't give a fuck for real I don't fucking care
That's all I hear..

[Will.I.Am]

The pain stops with the end of raindrops
But this cloudy weather just reminds me of the time we spent together
And how you left forever like that with a snap of fingers Pain lingers, so this is to the Woman who I made my family
Now I call her a bitch just to save my sanity
So this is to that bitch who I thought would be right here
She's just a monster in my reoccurring nightmare Now when my grandfather died, you weren't there for me
When my grandmama died, you weren't there for me
When my natural dad died, you weren't there for me
You saw me and just ignored me like "Sorry end of the story"
My family's dropping like flies ???
But nobody's by my side, can't look straight into my eye
Nobody's by my side, can't look straight into my eyes
My fist grabs air, I stare in through the lies
I never felt more lonely, I made you the one and only Individual to know me this is the thing that you showed
me
I never felt more lonely, I made you the one and only Individual to know me, never thought that you'd turn phony
But you did, now I'm going all out kid

Build up your saliva and get ready to kill the fire Spit in the face of figure heads, give 'em a taste of the shit I said
Build a place for children to escape
The inbred human race of living deadbeat
Dads milking the motherless childcare system Let the sleepers have another nightmare from Christian conservatives
They don't fight fair and any religion would murder kids
If they don't quite care about the condition
Of the prison where we're serving bids Once I escape my skin cell I won't be banging on the bars of soap
That I dropped into my living hell
The seemingly indestructible knuckles of my fists are clean
Keeping eyes wide open and bulging out like Mr. Bean Misdemeanors made to look like felonies, the prison queen
Is existing in his own filth and feeling no guilt it seems It's a dream with cheetah speed we're chasing after Some are running quick Track teams want me to lead but face the fact Y'all can't catch up to it, pace at your own pace on this race track
You'll eventually get lapped on your last leg while stretching my aggression is just a lack of serotonin Plug the jack of your telephone in to the wall
So I can call your bluff just to say what's up, how ya doin'
