[Duck Sauce]

Oh yeah, fuck off

Where did the beat go?

Where did the beat go?

Where did the beat go?

Where did the be-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-eat go?

[The Karma Killers]

Take your time and watch your step

You'd better get it right

Or you'll get left behind

The way you're dancin' I can tell

That someone else is on your mind

And that sparkle in your wanderin' eye

Has struck you blind as far as I can see

Take one step back and look again

You're gonna leave with him

Or stay with me

Well now we've gone this long

Don't let it slip through your hands

I know a girl, she's a shy girl

Don't say much, but I've got a hunch

She got another side she likes to hide

In the back of her head, in the front of my mind

Got a hip in her shake, got a swing in her step

Got a thing in her thigh, and a gleam in her eye

All the girls get jealous, all the guys want more

When the lights go down, she hits the floor

[Sryan]

But guys, where did the beat go?

She is jumping on her toe

I told her "hello"

But she couldn't hear me because she was doing a big
blow

But guys, where did the beat go?

The sexy ladies asked me "for a ho"

But I told him "no"

The tempature was too low

But guys, where did the beat go?

[The Karma Killers]

I like the part when the guy gets the girl
When they close the door, makes me want a little more
I get that feeling, when I watch her go
I can watch for days but let's take it slow
She's got that rhythm, she's got that bounce
The way she moves her thing when she walks out
I know a girl, she's a shy girl
Don't say much, but I got a hunch
She got another side she likes to hide
In the back of her head, in the front of my mind
Got a hip in her shake, got a swing in her step
Got a thing in her thigh, and a gleam in her eye
All the girls get jealous, all the guys want more
When the lights go down, she hits the floor
And when she dances I can really love
Never got the memo
Never got on board
Couldn't get lost
Cause I never explored

[Sryan]

But guys, where did the beat go?
She is jumping on her toe
I told her "hello"
But she couldn't hear me because she was doing a big
blow
But guys, where did the beat go?
The sexy ladies asked me "for a ho"
But I told him "no"
The tempature was too low
But guys, where did the beat go?

[Duck Sauce]

Never took a swing
Never held the ring
Never drew a straw
Never knew how to draw
We got the whole world waiting for
Anything to wash ashore
Evidence they can't ignore
Anything to hope for
Faith is the substance
Faith is the glue
Bringing us together
Giving us a clue
Oh yeah, fuck off
Where did the beat go?
Where did the beat go?
Where did the beat go?
Where did the beat go?

Where did the beat go?
Where did the beat go?
Where did the beat go?
Where did the beat go?
Where did the beat go?
Where did the be-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-eat go?

[Sryan]
