you say i'm "your air"
so inhale.
and forget about me.
please, soak in these words too easily.

i'll be alright. i'll be alright.
i'll be fine. i'll be alright.

turn to my left, i looked away,
you can never replace me.
you give up hope too easily

you turn right, you look away,
you are replaced.
i know it's hard for you to see.

(what happened to you,
what happened to us?
you are no longer the boy i once knew.
yet you still remain one.)
