maybe we're worse off than we'd ever thought.
don't think i don't know what's going on.
how am i the one to blame for feeling this way?
you're a liar, you're a liar.

and oh, i'd hate to know.

i'm suprised because i'm not
with you i'm completely indifferent, baby.
think of all the girls he's called beautiful and i wish i were beautiful too.

oh, i'd hate to know what it's like to be so blind and not see the beauty around you and
me

grow up, grow old, grow out, grow cold,
can we be completely honest?
for the first time in our lives?
grow up, grow old, grow out, grow cold,
can we be completely honest?

me

don't give yourself credit for making me like this take offense:

you're the mistake.

(grow up, grow old, grow out, grow cold,
can we be completely honest?
grow up, grow old, grow out, grow cold,
can we be completely honest?
