I've been waiting for my lady
One hour, she finally came
She came walking by my table
And I'm thinking, what's this fox's game

To be honest, I was ready
To play that white witch's game
And I knew that she was ready
To cut loose on the town and meet
Somebody new for a change

When you're running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion

I may not recall exactly
How I got her to sit down
She was sitting at my table
And I'm making out like a clown

Oh, she'll make me very happy
When she showed her fallen again
And I knew that she was ready
To cut loose on the town and meet
Somebody new for a change

When you're running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion

Rock 'n' rollin' ladies
Good life to the games you can't win
We'll drink right at my table
And we'll talk till it's time to go in

This could be something heavy
If only you'd show me a sign
And something says you're ready
To cut loose on the town and meet
Somebody new for a change

When you're running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion

Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion

Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion

Running all night with the lion
Running all night with the lion
