I got a solid silver reason
I got something you'll never buy
I've spent my life playing rock 'n' roll
I wouldn't tell a lie

Well, if you want to taste the freedom
Just let the music take a hold
I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll
There's a thunder, see it and wonder
How to play the game, it's easy

You know, we're gonna live forever
You know we're never gonna die
You see it's written across the sky tonight
I'm gonna tell you why

Because they've covered up the exits
We got a spotlight just for you
I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll
Hear me calling, stars are falling
Taking me away

Stand up, shout it out
I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll
Stand up, shout it out
Sell your soul

Stand up, shout it out
Let the music take a hold
Stand up, shout it out
Rock 'n' roll

Can't you feel we're gettin' stronger
Gettin' stronger every day
There ain't nothing gonna stop us
Oh, there ain't no way

It's like a rolling ball of thunder
You know, it's never gonna stop
You know, it's gonna drag you under
See me soaring, thunders roaring
Things afraid again

Stand up, shout it out
I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll
Stand up, shout it out
Sell your soul

Stand up, shout it out
Let the music take a hold
Stand up, shout it out
Rock 'n' roll

I got a solid silver reason
I got something you'll never buy
I've spent my life with rock 'n' roll
Oh no, would I lie?

But if you want to taste the freedom
Just let the music take a hold
I'm possessed by rock 'n' roll
There's a thunder, see it and wonder
How to play the game, it's easy

It's gonna drag you under
Gonna take your heart and soul
You gotta stand up
You gotta shout, shout, shout, shout, shout it out
[Incomprehensible]
