For many years I felt like a man
Feeling his way through darkness
This priceless treasure
For which I've searched
Appeared to me nothing more
Than a mirage in the sea

But when the vision faded
From this struggle and dream
Suddenly my illusion is diary
I've now discovered what's reality

Sunshine, sunshine, sunshine
I've found you
Even if you're only
Even if you're only
Even if you're only
Destined for a while

Sunshine, sunshine, sunshine
I've found you
Even if you're only
Destined for a while

I'll be both most impressions
And I arrive this with a smile
As the picture book shows stanley
Standing at the source of the Nile
