Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you

Tired of the shit that I learned from school Tired of the things that I don't wanna do Pissed by the shit people want me to I miss all the things that I used to do Why don't you asses not just leave Set me free just let me be How I really wanna be Excuse me, I see
I'm dealin with another fucking wannabe
You're trippin', you're gettin' on my nerves
Now I really know what it takes to win a persons spurse Too many haters all around and too much curse
It stinks what you do is right, what I do is wrong
I don't give a fuck I just keep going on My tongue is active, my shit is progressive I'm massive, aggressive, for you too expensive
So better stay passive all that you do is annoy me
You should find another employment Lookin' at me and all you see is a foreigner Just another alien, I will be the reason for this rebellion

Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,

fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you

I do see a lot of Wannabes in the club
A lot of son of guns like Geeez smokin' pot A lot of mamas and sisters they're shakin' around their butts
And me in the middle of a little shitty club I'm laughin' at your pimples how you're tryin' to get it hot
Even when I come around is just like wassssup
The superficial people all around what the fuck
Your life is just a cent I'm about a buck Me and my dude Duane rollin' in the subway
We don't give a fuck about it is really ok
We are damn sure next day sex play is guarantee And everybody in the club wanna get to know me as a homie
Wants to show me what he can I don't wanna burn I ain't concerned I never maintain there is nothing for me to learn
you might be jealous fellows and that's a real fact

Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you

Just take a look at society everybody's walkin' like a VIP Boys at the bar full of Bacardi chicks in the club on extacy
Dressed up shitty like a blond Barbie isn't it scary
But where's your man, ohh, sorry, isn't it Ken
The man who carries you on his hands to wonderland
To the Never Neverland, hmm strange, how did it come so far
All I hear is bla, I wanna be this I wanna be that I wanna be a superstar Germany is searching on TV kids at the age of ten to thirty
Isn't it dirty???

Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,
Fuck you all,
you little asses,
fuck you all,
you make me sick,

Fuck you

Ey yo man don't take it personal just think about what I'm trying to tell ya.
Try to be an inavator man don't try to be someone else
try to be yourself ok?
Peace i'm outty he Fuck you
