This is the epilogue to "Mark Of The Beast"

Track 13

Now that it's digested

Lay me down to sleep

I woke up rested

Took a deep breath and blew the sickness out of my chest

Healed myself

And stack the deck before I get dealt

Live off the government

Strapped in tight for mental health

Freed up my schedule when I put the pedal to the metal

Cruised the mall like Elwood Blues

With no seat belt

Fueled by the fear of insecurity

Narcissism reigns supreme in our society

Get money

Evolve slowly one-by-one

Sweet equilibrium is reached

When release what we achieve

Oh, the irony

Struggle at every level

To control the forces

That cause us to conform

And divorce our psychosis

So who's ready?

Nobody

We don't want to die

And if we do, we want to live on in other peoples' minds

Frozen in time

Trying run a circle on a timeline

And when you reach the top your definition is redefined

So keep trying

Til I engineer a pig to fly

And we can all saddle up and ride

Touch the sky

I'm just a regular guy who's tapped in to something else

Like you, alive

In the fight to preserve myself
Even if I gotta kill everybody else
In a death-cult suicide
I survive

[Off Topic]

If I face duality in my reality
I foresee a long list of casualties
At my feet
Got the power of persuasion
In the strength of my speech
Download the bandwagon
And I'll take you down with me
Grammatical, mathematical, tight precision
If my calculations prove correct
I'm in prison
And the faster they try to run from me
I keep with them
Nobody's out of my reach
I will get them
And I'm more powerful dead
Immortal symbolism
They're not equipped to handle my shit
They're off rhythm
And the bad vibes resonate deep into the system
When they finally catch on nobody's even going to miss them
Now, how many names do you know from a thousand years ago
That didn't lead a million people to war?
Or, stumble onto something so deep
They were killed for their beliefs?
I'm doing both, so may I rest in peace
And at my funeral play back the "Prodigal" beat
With freestyles courtesy of Rhyme Network emcees
Kavorkian, Klutch, Rummage, V, Phase, and Greek
Let Snake Money eulogize me on Technics

[Off Topic]

Focus and discipline
Make us more than men
Perfect specimens
Homo sapiens
Always unlearning
They find me concerning
So my records are burning
So many heads are turning
Trying to decode my sermon
But it's on you
Who murdered JFK?
Look at the burning Pentagon pictures

Where was the plane?
Iraq and Vietnam war, one and the same
While the South was left to drown in a series of hurricanes
I spell doom
They're getting sloppy and cocky
I can smell the change coming
Like I sense the man that shot me
And they can't stop me
It's already too late
I got a plan stronger than fear
Stronger than hate
Get at them on a level they can't contemplate
In the fifth dimension
With my general Phase Fate
My troops sing a requiem mass at day break
To announce the next age as we pass through the gates
