Hey y'all, hey y'all
Hey y'all, hey y'all
Hey y'all, hey y'all
Hey y'all, hey y'all

Hey y'all, come over here, check this out
And gimme a minute of your time, but don't doubt
Anything that I tell y'all, listen up closely
It's something ghostly, my ancestors told me

Way back before we walked the earth
It was so much cleaner 'cause it wasn't disturbed
But there was still hatred and strugglin' for our color
'Cause if you had nothing you were bound to smother

And I don't know why 'cause helping hands should be a must
It was written on the manuscript in the book you trust
Unless it's all just a way to get us arguin'
Believing what you feel even if it's a life of sin

Hey y'all, everybody gotta watch they back
We alone, gotta watch your back
Hey y'all, everybody gotta walk in they're own path
But at the end, you can't go back

Hey y'all, everybody gotta watch they back
We alone, gotta watch your back
Hey y'all, everybody gotta walk in they're own path
But at the end, you can't go back

Ever since there's been a jail cell, murder's been committed
'Thou shalt not kill' then who's the one sinnin'?
At the end of all of this, will they be judged?
Punished for the life they took with no grudge

Nowadays, things sure ain't changed
There's a whole lot of states allowed to fry your brains
That's 'cause lately we just burn it away
Let them build they own prisons where their ass can stay

It's a wonder how we let things happen, I ain't special
But I enjoy takin' it to another level
Bad choices lead to a terrible afterlife
So just learn your wrongs from right

Hey y'all, everybody gotta watch they back
We alone, gotta watch your back
Hey y'all, everybody gotta walk in they're own path
But at the end, you can't go back

Hey y'all, everybody gotta watch they back
We alone, gotta watch your back
Hey y'all, everybody gotta walk in they're own path
But at the end, you can't go back

Hey y'all, I don't mean to get ya thinkin' about Things that's gonna get ya down and out
There just things I had to get up off my chest
'Cause I'm trying to relax and just do my best

I don't wanna take a situation and turn it upside down
I just feel this world's fuckin' around
I mean, who am I to judge?
I just, I was raised to be strong enough

Hey y'all, do you understand what I'm saying?
Hey y'all, my ancestors got me down on my knees praying
Hey y'all, they keep tellin' me to spread the word Hey y'all, 'cause when they come their gonna test what you have learned

Hey y'all, everybody gotta watch they back
We alone, gotta watch your back
Hey y'all, everybody gotta walk in they're own path
But at the end, you can't go back

Hey y'all, everybody gotta watch they back
We alone, gotta watch your back
Hey y'all, everybody gotta walk in they're own path
But at the end, you can't go back

Hey y'all, hey y'all
Retaliation, what now?
