"Baby Be Mine"

Baby, I think about you all the time
Now all I ask is for you to be my girl
Do you feel me?

Baby girl don't you know it
Everything that I say is true
All my love gonna show it (let you know baby girl what I feel for you)
In my heart there's a feeling
Something real that I can't ignore
I like the way you are, are

In my mind you're my girl and I want ya'
If I could make you love me forever
So get into my life want you here by my side
And I can make you feel so right,so right

Baby be mine
You are the one for me and girl these words are true
Girl you're so fine
I'll be you're everything and I'll be waiting
I'll be the one
I'll be your destiny you're always on my mind
The whole night through watching you, watching you
Cause' you're my lady

Everything that I see ya'
I get chills by the way you move Everything's got a reason (like the day baby girl when I first saw you)
All I need is affection
Wish i had some of yours tonight
Let's make this last for life, life

Baby, I think about you all the time
Now all I ask is for you to be my girl
Do you feel me?
