In my shoes

In my shoes

There is so much to remind me

As the stars come out above me

Home

Cool wind, clear my head

Bright sun grow my food

Strong rain clear my heart

Fill my land

I don't know why it is sold

Don't know why it's so cold

In this life that we live

New day (3)

In my shoes

In my shoes

There is so much to astound me

As the whirlpool spins around me

Home

Busfire, burn and grow

Sunset watch and rest low

A long night holding child close

Feed my dream

I don't know why it is sold

Don't know why it's so cold

In this life that we live

New day (4)

It's so larger than life

It's darker than death

We're gonna move those mountains aside
