Older the Kosciusko

Darwin down to Alice Springs

Dealers in the clearinghouse

The settlements explode

High up in the homelands

Miners drive across the land

Encounter no resistance

When the people block the road

Older than Kosciusko

Dry white seasons years ago

Darkness over Charleville

The fires begin to glow

CHORUS

No end to the hostility

Now they wanna be somewhere else

No stranger to brutality

Now they'd like to be someone else

Older than Kosciusko

Driver back to Alice Springs

Endless storm and struggle

Marks the spirit of the age

High up in the homelands
Celebration 'cross the land
Builds up like a cyclone
Now the fires begin to rage

CHORUS

Call off the ultimatum
No don't turn away
Call off the ultimatum until yesterday
Call off the ultimatum, no don't turn away
Bind up the brokenhearted
No don't turn away
Call off the ultimatum until yesterday
