When I'm locked in my room

I just want to scream

Now I know what they mean

One more day of eating and sleeping

Speak to me, look at me, I've been broken up and shaken down

Speak to me, speak to me, I'm at the edge of myself, I'm dying

to talk

Look at me, won't you look at me, back once more at the point of no return

When I'm locked in my room

I just want to scream

Now I know what they mean

Only the strong
