Wherever the wind blows, when it blows over the sea
The moon's sitting high, waves will rise water shapes, waves will take you there
Surf's up tonight
Summer's on hold, it will go running away, you've got to move now
Get inside, take that dive, get inside today
Surf's up tonight
Now I was lonely, you were too, I met you down at the water line
Now there's something we can do, now there's something left to do Wherever you are when you're coming over land There's a place where you can throw it all away There's a place where you can forget, you get wet, it's free, you get high, you're alive...surf's up tonight
