"Two Whole Days"

Visit "Two Whole Days" on MotoLyrics.com

Give me two whole days to make this go away,
The love and lust I used to know.
Have I waited too long to try and make you stay,
And if you did would life still be the same?

Take your time and think about things,
Before you make a choice.
I never even heard a hint of reason in your voice.
Yesterday you told me you were gonna leave today,
And tomorrow I know you'll do the same.

Give me two whole days to make this go away,
Our love and lust is so far gone.
When I look back on our life I wash the dirt away,
And now that you're gone I know I'll be ok
