[Announcer] Oh mighty!

Welcome to the Hank Williams Jr, Bocephus part of the get together

Are you ready?

They're ready

We like to have you meet a guy. I'm sure you've met him many times

He's been with Hank since they were both about that high

He wrote a song called "Wolverton Mountain", "Ring of Fire"

When you get on the whiskey let someone else drive
Merle Kilgore!

[Merle Kilgore]

(Spoken) Well ladies and gentlemen if you didn't know by now you're setting a little bit of musical history with the number one artist in the nation Hank Williams Jr.

We're making a live Bocephus album

We want you to raise hell and make a lot of noise tonight

You're gonna be recording with the number one man
Bocephus

The man who has eleven gold, three platinum, the number one album today, the number one single, and I ain't gonna call Hank

Williams Jr, Junior anymore. Gonna call him Hank

(Sung) I ain't gonna call Hank Williams Junior, Junior anymore

Even though I know what all his daddy done before Hank weighs close to two hundred pounds and stands about 6'4"

I ain't gonna call Hank Williams Junior, Junior anymore

(Spoken) Ladies and gentlemen the boss of country, Bocephus!

Bocephus is here! Bocephus!
