

Useless I.D. "Isolate Me"

Visit "Isolate Me" on MotoLyrics.com

No more medicine, I'll be leaving now.
Give me anything, I won't make a sound.

No more medicine to keep me paranoid.
No more padded cells for me to exploit.

Now, as you lie in bed to the one you care about,
Do you dream of any doubt?

Isolate me.

I wanted to tell you (I wanted to tell you),
I won't be here every time.
I wanted to tell you (I wanted to tell you),
I won't be here every single time.

No, I'm not afraid of dark Saturdays.
They come and go like friends, no need to explain.

I never thought you could like I knew you would.
We're just an accident.

Isolate me.

I wanted to tell you (I wanted to tell you),
I won't be here every time.
I wanted to tell you (I wanted to tell you),
I won't be here every single time.

So where did we go wrong?
So where did we go wrong?

I wanted to tell you (I wanted to tell you),
I won't be here every time.

I can see it's what you wished for.
Why can't you just isolate me, isolate me now?
