close my eyes and think back oh, when the time was no regrets and how you looked at me and said you would never leave me wipe your tears and get a grip no one hears you anyway just accept that no one cares

'cause you can't here them saying:

don't mind
don't care about me
I got myself
and I know that someday
this could be the end for me how would it be?

how your miss could turn to this I'll think back to what's left you can never see the pain and you can't here them saying:

don't mind
don't care about me
I got myself

don't mind
don't care about me
I got myself
and I know that someday, this could...

don't care about me
I got myself
