How can I put this?
I-I-I, I'm an independent woman
I, I've been crying like a chi-i-ild
I just wanted you to know the person that I am
More than any other of your friends
I will love you for a thousand years
Yours truly

I ain't gonna play it cool
Let me tell you I've tried that already
Every day and every night
Your words ring through me

Who am I trying to fool?
Honey, I've been living on my own, like Freddie
But I'm still a woman
Baby, tell me how

How could I ever love another?
How could you say you don't remember?
God knows I'd give anything
For just one more night together
Today I'll miss you more than ever
How could you say you don't remember?
This one's for the happiness
I'll be wishing you forever

It's just another Friday night
For you and your accessories (wise)
And there you are before my eyes
Two hours and for fifteen minutes you are here
I don't wanna scream, lest I should tear
I'll whisper in the darkness "disappear"
Sincerely

We should get back on the road
Like Simon and Garfunkel
Let's get married
You were all the shelter that
I need above me

Who am I trying to fool?
Honey, I've got your ringtone on my Blackberry
And I won't give a damn
If only I knew how

How could I ever love another?
How could you say you don't remember?
God knows I'd give anything
For just one more night together
Today I'll miss you more than ever
How could you say you don't remember?
This one's for the happiness
I'll be wishing you forever

You've got me crying like a chi-i-ild
Ain't no need for me to li-i-ie
A hundred j-peg files
Filling up my hard-drive
You've got me crying like a chi-i-ild
And the crowd is going wi-i-ild

This one
This is the one
Come on and give it up

How could I ever love another?
How could you say you don't remember?
God knows I'd give anything
For just one more night together
Today I'll miss you more than ever
How could you say you don't remember?
This one's for the happiness
I'll be wishing you forever

How could I ever love another?
How could you say you don't remember?
God knows I'd give anything
For just one more night together
Today I'll miss you more than ever
How could you say you don't remember?
This one's for the happiness
I'll be wishing you forever
