My 7th grade escapade used to watch and observe Same fella's who could rap, feathers flocked to their words
Lunch room tables knockin' beat boxing preferred Situation, inspiration now I'm plottin' my splurge
In the classroom opposite nerd, I'm in the back Teacher think I'm takin' notes, but I'm jottin' a verse Next day I'm in the lunch room bobbin' at first I caught my man off, he ran off shocked what he heard Seen a couple of jaws drop to the shirt Overnight I went from "yeah, she aiight" to the popular skirts
Parents couldn't understand the plan, how could it work?
And now my grades spell "EDDE" so the problem is worse
You don't wanna be a grown man not gettin' work
Or better yet a famous rapper on the top gettin' jerked Plus the talent that you got is from the God of the earth Provocative words, my lesson learned, knowledge is first
