I wanted to show you
That I really loved you so.
But you had to go and I'm not crying
Today 'Cause I know you're smiling
You were the best...
And still you shine,
Deep inside, deep in pride...
Hypocrites, we are hypocrites
With faces full of promises and words full of lies.
Hypocrites, we are hypocrites
With faces full of promises and words full of lies.
The hypocrites came,
And the love was on their faces.
Just to think they were here
Because of you...
I wanted to tell you
That I really loved you so.
But you had to go away,
And I'm not crying.
Hypocrites, we are hypocrites.
With faces full of promises and words full of lies.
Hypocrites, we are hypocrites.
With faces full of promises and words full of lies.
The hypocrites came,
And the love was on their faces
Just to think they were here
Because of you...
I wanted to tell you,
That I really loved you so
And still you shine...
Deep inside...
Hypocrites, we are hypocrites,
With faces full of promises and words full of lies.
Hypocrites, we are hypocrites.
With faces full of promises and words full of lies.
