You left me with no choice. I had to hear your voice
When you tell the lie that I'm your only.
Don't look at me for dignity there's nothing here to see
I traded off believing, I'm not lonely
And they say:

(Chorus) She's no good for me and all my friends can
see
Miss Mary Mack, all dressed in black
She presses my buttons, and I want her back

I never figured out you I was just about to suck it up and speak true
I am lonely
And they say:

(Chorus) She's no good for me and all my friends can
see
Miss Mary Mack, all dressed in black
She presses my buttons, and I want her back

But if you came back (Miss Mary Mack)
I'd be trading my honor (just to calm my boner)
And we wouldn't want that (no we wouldn't want that)
No we wouldn't want that (But I will take it)

She took my heart-core, I'll have to make more Intentions unpure, I'll have to change her I'll step out the back door cause I don't like war
what is it good for Ugh! good god ya'll

(Chorus) She's no good for me and all my friends can
see
Miss Mary Mack, all dressed in black
She presses my buttons, and I want her back

(Chorus) Miss Mary Mack, all dressed in black
She presses my buttons, and I want her back
