I haven't met a girl like you in two years and my heart's still sore
You're all I ever wanted I think and you could like me too.

(Chorus) What can I do just tell me I will write it down and always think of you once again with no boyfriend what do you want just tell me I will write it down and put you in a song

I haven't seen a sight like you in so long and my eyes are sore
You're all I ever wanted I think that you would like me

(Chorus) What can I do just tell me I will write it down
and always
think of you once again with no boyfriend
you in a song

(Bridge) I, (I, I) Never felt like this and I can smell the bliss of feeling the potential of not knowing you but still I never Never felt like this and I, (I, I) can smell the bliss of feeling the potential of not knowing you but still writing this song

You're all I ever wanted I think you should like me too

(Chorus) What can I do just tell me I will write it down
and always
think of you once again with no boyfriend
you in a song

(Chorus) What can I do just tell me I will write it down
and always
think of you once again with no boyfriend
what do you want just tell me I will write it down and put

you in a song

And put you in a song
