I'm so tired of being left behind
Eating dust, pushed and shoved
Beaten up and blinded
I'm praying for the day when it ends.
So goodbye to the sun for now
'till I come back again
when I do, you're the fool
I'll be pushing youâ€¦

Standing on the back line
But now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it)

I'm so tired of being left alone
Looked down, written off
Got to learn to fight it
I'll be laughing last when this all ends.
So goodbye to the sun for now
'till I come back again
when I do, you're the fool
I'll be pushing youâ€¦

Standing on the back line
But now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it)
Was crawling for a long time
Now I'm way ahead (couldn't believe it)

I'm ready to take everything right back
It's a brand new day
The fire in my heart, it burnsâ€¦
