Like burned out light bulbs on a Ferris Wheel

Old boyfriends

You remember the kinds of cars they drove

Parking in an orange grove

He fell in love, you see

With someone that I used to be

Though I very seldom think of him

Nevertheless sometimes a mannequin's

Blue summer dress can make the window like a dream

Ah, but now those dreams belong to someone else

Now they talk in their sleep

In a drawer where I keep all my

Old boyfriends

Remember when you were burning for them

Why do you keep turning them into

Old boyfriends

They look you up when they're in town

To see if they can still burn you down

He fell in love, you see

With someone that I used to be

Though I very seldom think of him

Nevertheless sometimes a mannequin's
Blue summer dress can make the window like a dream
Ah, but now those dreams belong to someone else
Now they talk in their sleep
In a drawer where I keep all my
Old boyfriends
Turn up every time it rains
Fall out of the pages in a magazine
Old boyfriends
Girls fill up the bars every spring
Dark places for remembering
Old boyfriends
All my old boyfriends
Old boyfriends
