It's been half past midnight
And it's time to go home
But I can not seem to find my way
In this overwhelming feeling It's so aggravating
I can not seem to find my way
But still I'll give my best shot And hit it with all I've got Just see where this is taking me

By taking all of this just a little bit further This has taken a life of it's own and is wandering away Never really expected that you'd care about what is good for me Or the things that I do, 'cause you do not give a fuck about me anymore I don't care, I'll go on Don't you see you're only making me

I need you to know that I suffocate No shame, no innocence, no guilty part, no one to blame

Suffocate, I embrace Still wanna find my way back home
I too, need someone, something, somehow Just let me find my way home
Why give me, a hard time It isn't going to change a fucking thing I hope, you'll get this 'Cause this is all I have to say to you
