This is all that it takes
And if I was to make you
What would you say?
it finally read
We were the only two people in the room
And couldn't hear a word you said

You wanna tell me but you wont say
You wanna tell me but you wont say
You wanna feel it to see how I do
You wanna go where you can see it too

However you make the breaks
I'm not even listening
So what did you say?
And finally said
We were the only two people in the room
And I couldn't hear a word you said

You wanna tell me but you wont say
You wanna tell me but you wont say
You wanna feel it to see how I do
You wanna go where you can see it too

When you see it will you find it?
When you see it will you find it?

When you see it will you find it?
Find it
When you see it will you find it?
Find it
When you see it will you find it?
Find it
When you see it will you find it?
Find me

We were only two people
When you see it will you find it?
When you see what?
Will you get saved from it all?
I wanna see you saved from this world
You see me where you want to go

And you wanna see some respect
Show some respect
Tell me

You wanna tell me but you wont say
You wanna tell me but you wont say
You wanna feel it to see I do
You wanna go where you can see it too
