Brutal

Sometimes I feel that you're a part of me,

Although it don't seem real it's how I want it to be

But if you can't stay, then I'll understand

You're just sawdust in my empty hand

If you can't decide I'll still be true

Just open wide; I'm here for you

And if you think that you've found a gentle sound,

Where love breaks down; It's alright.

And if you can't overcome what get's you down,

Don't get uptight; It's alright.

I'm a shallow man in an hollow land

On a beaten track under your command

And the sound in my head goes round and round

Like a drunk on the stairs who just fell down

But now it seems like a distant dream

When it all lived long

Wrong with our love supreme

And the sound in my head goes round and round

Like a drunk on the stairs who just fell down

And if you think that you've found a gentle sound,

Where love breaks down; It's alright.

And if you can't overcome what get's you down,

Don't get uptight; It's alright.

It's alright.

the sound in my head goes round and round

Like a drunk on the stairs who just fell down

And if you think that you've found a gentle sound,

Where love breaks down; It's alright.

And if you can't overcome what get's you down,

Don't get uptight; It's alright.

It's alright
